

Private Lesson/Small Group Class Contract

This contract is between _____ and Canopy Studio, Inc.
For the _____ Session

I understand that I am entering into an agreement with Canopy Studio to provide private lessons for myself or  my child(ren)_____.

I understand that the cost for private lessons is as follows:

- Private Lesson for 1 student –
  - $50 total / one hour lesson
  - $30 total / half hour lesson
- Semi-Private Lesson for 2 students –
  - $60 total / one hour lesson; $30 per student
  - $40 total / half hour lesson; $20 per student
- Small Group Class for 3 students –
  - $75 total / one hour lesson; $25 per student
  - NO half hour lesson offered
- Small Group Class for 4 students –
  - $80 total / one hour lesson; $20 per student
  - NO half hour lesson offered

I understand that I must pay for each lesson before the lesson takes place. This means I can either pay with a check or cash or with a credit card on the iPad at Canopy Studio the day of the lesson. There will no longer be the option of paying online from home or running a “tab.”

I understand that if I or my child is in a group of 2 or more students and one of the group does not come to that lesson, I can either pay for the lesson at the rates outlined above, or I can decline the lesson that day.

I understand that I may have to pay more than anticipated for a small group class as it will fluctuate with the number of students who come on any given day; e.g., Four students take a small group class on Sunday afternoon. One student goes out of town for Labor Day. The rest of the students choose to take the class, therefore paying $25 each instead of $20.

I understand that for group lessons, students/parents reserve the right to cancel for holidays, illness, and travel without being subjected to payment. Those students still taking the class agree to pay Canopy’s current private lesson rates or can decline to take the class; e.g., if two students don’t show up for a four person lesson, the two responsible payees for the lesson will be given the option to continue. They can decide whether or not the absences put the lesson out of their price range. Or, the remaining students may opt to take a 30 minute lesson instead of a full hour, reducing the cost per student. This can be decided with the teacher at the time of the lesson.

I understand that if I have paid for multiple lessons in advance, any additional charge must be paid by the next lesson; e.g., if you paid $20 for a 4 person small group class and only 3 students come, you will owe an additional $5 at the next lesson.

I understand that I or my child may not participate in any future lessons until any balance due is brought up to date.

Parents Only:

If I send my child without cash or check, I will have a credit card on file in my Mindbody account which can be charged for the lesson on the day of the lesson.

I give Canopy Studio permission to charge my credit card on file in my account in Mindbody.

OR

I do not give Canopy Studio permission to charge my credit card or I do not have one on file. I understand that I must pay at each lesson with cash or a check. I also understand that I must make up the difference owed for a previous lesson, if any, at the next lesson. The teacher will communicate to me each week if a different amount is due than was paid.

I hereby give my consent for my child to continue with any lesson that will end up costing me _____$5 more _____$10 more (please indicate if one or either amount is agreeable to you)
(This provision will allow your child to continue with a lesson if we are unable to reach you.)

OR

I do NOT give consent for my child to continue a lesson if the cost will be greater than the amount anticipated when lessons were set up; e.g., $20 per child for a 4 person small group class.

I understand that if my child misses a lesson that I have pre-paid, there are two options:
1. They may make it up in the Kids Conditioning class

OR

2. The amount paid will be applied to a future lesson. There will be no refunds.

I have read and understand Canopy's cancellation policy:

Private Lesson Cancellation Policy:

1. Lessons must be cancelled by email or phone 24 hours prior to the scheduled lesson.
2. The first time a student cancels a private lesson in less than 24 hours or does not show up, they will be charged half of the lesson fee.
3. Subsequent late cancellations and no-shows will be charged the full lesson price.
4. The only exceptions are due to weather, health or injury, but notification is still required as soon as possible. If no notice is given, regardless of the reason, the above policy will be followed.

Please check each box next to the above statements you agree to and sign below.

This agreement will be updated each session.
